Dr. N.K. Shukla, Sr. Advocate with Shri Vaibhav Mishra, Advocate for the petitioner.

Shri Vinod Shrivastava, Govt. Advocate for the State.

Application for urgent hearing is allowed.

Heard

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the matter relates to revision of pay and payment of arrears with interest. He submitted that petitioner has already submitted representations. He further submits that for the present the petitioner may be given an opportunity of filing the detailed representation before the competent authority of the respondents, which shall be considered on its own merits in accordance with law.

Having considered and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, in the opinion of this Court, ends of justice will be served if a direction is given to the petitioner to make a detailed representation raising his grievances before the competent authority of the respondents along with a copy of the petition and this order, within 15 days, and on such representation being filed, the competent authority of the respondents shall decide the same by a reasoned order on its own merits in accordance with law as early as possible preferably within two months from the date of receipt of the representation. It is made clear that if any grievance still remains, the petitioner may avail the remedy available under the law.

With the aforesaid observations, this petition stands disposed of.

Accordingly, M.W.P.No.1873/2004 stands disposed of.
